News of Trevor & Linda

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Thank you all for the very kind offers of lifts and other types of help, it's so appreciated. This weekend I am allowed to drive again although our trips to hospital are easier if we use the bus and walk. This way we are forced to exercise, not a bad thing at all. Despite getting tired quickly, things are going well and I do feel so much better. However I do have bookings at Charing Cross and Hammersmith Hospitals 'til mid August when we hope to resume our sabbatical. All being well and with the Lord's blessing in 12 months or so you should have a renewed Linda and

Trevor both physically and spiritually with you.

Please do give us a ring and come and see us – we miss you all very much. Bless yer – Linda and Trev

Ealing Evangelism

Most of us men will remember the Men's Day when we were taught street painting and a couple of conjuring tricks as part of street evangelism, and now we have the chance to do it again, and again! It's for the ladies too, as some of them came in the afternoon and were really blessed. Yorke Rodda, one of the evangelists at the men's day, has written to ask that we publicise the evangelism and healing on the street team that meets in West Ealing. They meet at 11 o'clock every Saturday morning outside St James Church, West Ealing. After about 30 minutes of praying they move to the front of Sainsbury's and the Library. We are all welcome - all we need is to mention that we are from Antioch. A lady called Marie is the leader. – Michael Thompson

Praying for our Children

Our termly session of praying for all of our children has come around again, and this time it's at our house, on Friday 19th June. We start at 8:15, we have coffee/chat and pray for an hour, and all interested parties are very welcome.

Who's got Work for me?

Dear All,

Many of you prayed for me before when I was looking for a job back in January, and I need your prayers for a job again! Unfortunately, due to the situation of the independent school where I work, my hours are going to be drastically reduced from June to one day a week. This means I really need to find more work from the beginning of June onwards. If you know of any schools needing Teaching Assistants or, even better, special needs therapists (I'm fully qualified and experienced in working with special needs) do let me know. Also, if you or anyone you know needs baby sitting or has need of a nanny, I'm very willing to do this. I would charge reasonable rates and would not only look after the children but be able to do games and work with them to help their development. I am also a good cook, so I can offer this service too, again for reasonable rates.

God Bless, – Natacha Palhares

Men's Champions Event

We'll be watching the Champions League final on 27th May at Mike Dale's, and generally having a good male-bonding evening. Bring something to drink, some nibbles and a partisan spirit to make it lively!

Frisbie – it takes two!

Liz McIntyre has asked us to pray for the success of the launch of her new business, which will take place next Saturday, 30th May.

The Lord has really put the idea of this business on her heart and has led her all the way.

This will be a big step for her. So let us support her with our prayer in this venture.

God bless – Mimi Turner

Update on Jos Melliush

[We got this update during the week, and we are delighted to hear of Jos's recovery. Jos's parents and the parish are the driving force behind New Wine. - Editor]

Dear Friends,
 Jos is now at home and with the family.
 He is so well that in theory he could even go back to school!

When we consider our darkest moments, a little over a week ago, Jos's current improvement seems miraculous to us. He is not yet fully restored and his journey to full health could be anything from a few months to a year. Please continue to pray for him, and that he makes a full and complete recovery. Please pray also for Mark and Lindsay and the family as they recover their strength and get back to normal life. On behalf of the Melliush family and the staff of St Paul's Church we want to thank you for all your support and prayers which have made such a great difference.

Yours in Christ
 – The Staff of St Paul's, Ealing
