New Calendar – Now!

On the website we are trying the idea of using the Google Calendar. Please try the different views, week, month and agenda, and see which suits your needs best. We are eager for constructive feedback, so let us know what you think.

We don't intend to issue a paper calendar in future, as everything will be on the website. That means you won't need to ask about the most up to date calendar as it will always be available. If you don't use the internet at all, please speak to me.

Konnect Mission Team

Konnect is a new Antioch mission strategy aimed at 25–35-ish without kids (not meaning to be exclusive but kids do change social dynamics quite a lot!).

We invite you who want to fit into this category to eat, worship and pray for this new work on Friday 11th September at [REDACTED] starting at 7pm.

RSVP [REDACTED].

Michael Rossi and Michael Dale

Engage Conference

Care for the Family is running a couple of conferences in the autumn and the one nearest to us is at the Hilton London Metropole on Saturday 21st November.

It's quite expensive, but there may well be a sub for those who choose to represent Antioch there. The main theme is how to connect with the people round about us. If this is interesting to you, you need to check the website, then get back to me. Go to: www.engagetoday.org.uk, but you need to do it soon, as there is a discount which elapses soon.

– Arthur Delargy

Thanksgiving

- The visit by our brothers and sisters from the Redeemer Baptist Church, Australia

Redeemer Baptist Visit

On Friday 17th July Mike Dale cooked a welcoming BBQ for the guests and opened his house to the rest of us for drinks and nibbles. Bob Bell generously erected his marquee in the garden, so when the guests eventually arrived, they could get fresh air and enjoy the garden. We had a cosmopolitan welcome for them, and when there was a slight issue with one of the sleeping arrangements, Neil and Ros came to the rescue and provided more space. Neil made sure we ran them to the tube on Saturday morning, for their architectural tour of London - Jonathan Cannon, as well as being the leader and head of the Redeemer Baptist School is an architect. Mimi Turner got the catering organised for the Saturday Lord's Day at Neil & Ros's, where Jonathan Mead and Nadia Thompson took the lead. Jonathan Cannon showed an inspiring and challenging DVD of their life in Australia, stopping for a commentary and to answer questions. Those present were impressed and recognised our brothers and sisters.

Sunday was HTB day for the visitors, but still Neil & Ros had them round for an evening meal. On Monday, after the group had witnessed the Ashes game at Lords, they came to a BBQ at the Meads'. Jonathan Mead did the cooking, supposedly assisted by Michael Thompson and the two Australian men, so that Helen Goodman and Caroline Mead could run a Women's Events sharing evening. When the young women visitors sang grace – a cappella – it was moving and inspiring. Andy Pettman had a chance that evening to have more of a sharing session with the men.

When they left on Tuesday morning, they had tasted true hospitality, not only taking over Hugh and Mercy Potters' home for the young women, but from Arthur and Rebecca, Jonathan & Caroline, Reiner and Ursula, Tim and Mimi (who arranged it all) and Neil and Ros. They left us with very good memories, as well as CDs of their music and DVDs of their life. This is not yet over!
