Mums and Dads, make sure your children have a snack for Saturday morning, as they will not eat lunch till 1:15! Also email any allergy updates to Michael Thompson.

Pastoral Leaders, if the cost is too steep for any of your people, remember to apply to the Common Life Fund, (blank forms on the website) but hurry, only 2 weeks to go!

Women's Breakfast

This time our theme is going to be 'Ambassadors for Christ' on Saturday 10th October 2009 from 9 – 11 a.m. at St Mary's Church Hall, Acton.

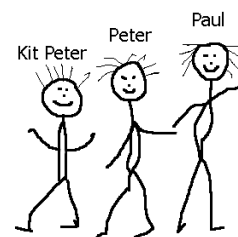

The guest speaker is our very own Ros Yates and we would, really, really appreciate it if we could know numbers of ladies and guests as soon as possible. – Helen Goodman

Three Children's Teams

We will have three teams for our primary aged children in Henley, based on the rooms they will be in! The Kit Peters (3-5) will be in St Peter's Hall Kitchen area!

The Peters (6-7) in St Peter's Hall, and the Pauls (9-12) in St Paul's Hall!

We are delighted that two teams of helpers are coming to Henley from Belfast and Dublin to serve us and our children. Please greet them when you see them! – Kyria Sewell

Engage Conference

Care for the Family is running a couple of conferences in the autumn and the one nearest to us is at the Hilton London Metropole on Saturday 21st November. It's quite expensive, but there may well be a sub for those who choose to represent Antioch there. The main theme is how to connect with the people round about us.

If this is interesting to you, you need to check the website, then get back to me. Go to:

www.engagetoday.org.uk,

but you need to do it soon, as there is a discount which elapses soon.

– Arthur Delargy
